What Palmara is

Positioning

A Vedic palmistry (Hast Rekha) reading service, delivered from a single photo of your palm — read by an in-house team of astrologers, not one named individual.

Audience

Everyday Indian adults seeking clarity on money, career, love, and marriage — including older, more traditional customers who trust Vedic astrology over app-style wellness brands.

Tone

Warm and credible, like a respected local astrologer's practice — never flashy, never app-startup slick.

What we avoid

Zodiac wheels, tarot-card imagery, Western mystical clichés, dark moody app aesthetics, and any single named "star astrologer" persona.

Primary logo — English

Use for the website, app stores, and English-language marketing.

On light backgrounds

On dark backgrounds

Never stretch, skew, rotate, or recolor the mark outside the approved palette.

Primary logo — Hindi (पालमारा)

Use for WhatsApp Business, print flyers, and Hindi-first placements. Never combine with the English lockup in one mark.

On light backgrounds

On dark backgrounds

Keep the Hindi and English lockups visually identical in weight and spacing.

The mark on its own

For app icons, social profile photos, and anywhere the full wordmark won't fit legibly.

Primary mark

Reversed mark

At small sizes

Clear space & minimum size: keep clear space around the mark roughly equal to the gap between its lines. Below about 32px, drop to a single flat color to keep the lines from blurring together.

Wordmark-only lockups

For placements too narrow for the icon — a footer line, a signature, a narrow banner.

Hindi wordmark, light background

English wordmark, dark background

Temple palette

Vermilion for trust and emphasis, gold for accents, ivory as the base. Green is reserved for honesty/reassurance moments only.

Maroon / vermillion #7A1220	Maroon deep #591019	Temple gold #B8860B	Peepal green #1F3D2B	Turmeric ivory #FBF1DC

Use one dominant color (maroon) with gold as the supporting accent — never give all four equal visual weight on one page.

Typography

Production fonts: Rozha One (headlines) and Mukta (body) — both support Latin and Devanagari natively, so English and Hindi always feel like one family. This slide uses PowerPoint-safe substitutes (Cambria / Calibri) to guarantee it displays correctly on any machine.

Do & don't

Do

- Use the reversed mark on dark or photographic backgrounds
- Keep the Hindi and English lockups visually identical in weight and spacing
- Drop to a single flat color below 32px
- Leave clear space around the mark untouched

Don't

- Stretch, skew, or rotate the mark or wordmark
- Recolor the mark outside the approved palette
- Combine the English and Hindi wordmarks into one lockup
- Place the mark on busy photos without a solid backing shape
